Hi Jim,

I wanted to send you a short email about your webpage, <https://sanjosescc.com/links/>. I volunteer with a children's group, where I help plan different events. One of our members is putting on a presentation on stamp collecting next weekend, so I wanted to find some interesting information to get the kids excited about it. Thanks for all the help!

My daughter, Ainsley, found a great resource on stamp collecting while helping me research, <https://www.beau-coup.com/articles/stampcollecting-for-all-occasions.htm>. Can you include this in your list of links? She's become very interested in stamp collecting, so I thought this would give her even more encouragement to feel like part of an online community. :-)

If you have any tips for our group, feel free to pass them on, and thanks again!

Take care,
Joy McMahon
